“Rancho Rags for Riches”- Clean-out Your Closets for United Cerebral Palsy of San Diego County

The Beach and Country Guild for UCP is proud to announce the “Rancho Rags for Riches” rummage sale. By cleaning out your closets for a good cause, net proceeds will benefit United Cerebral Palsy’s Assistive Technology Center here in San Diego.

The sale takes place on Saturday, February 6th at the Fairbanks Village Plaza at 16236 San Dieguito Road in Rancho Santa Fe and will be a day of fabulous bargains, food, and a few fun surprises. The event begins at 7:30am and goes to 2:30pm with Kimberly King of News 8-KFMB as MC.

You can also help by donating your gently used items such as: clothing, designer clothing, household items, electronics, small appliances, indoor/outdoor furniture, books and lots of little treasures. Items that cannot be accepted are: large appliances, industrial office equipment, copiers and mattresses.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE SAN DIEGO CHORALEERS AT PATRICK HENRY HIGH SCHOOL

“Something For Everyone,” an annual variety show by the San Diego Choraleers Adult Mixed Chorus will be on Saturday, February 20 at 4:30 p.m. at Patrick Henry High School Auditorium, 6702 Wandermere Drive in the Del Cerro area of San Diego, followed by dinner catered by Old World Restaurant.

The show will feature solos, duets and trios featuring chorus members, and group performances by the full Choraleers Chorus, “Inflections” vocal jazz group, “Women of Note,” “Serra-Naders” women’s chorus, and “Men of Note.” A variety of music and dance for all ages will be accompanied by Datha Rothstein and Jim Lombardi and is choreographed by Sonia Snyder.

Marty Minney, president of the Choraleers, said the event is a fundraiser. A raffle for a beautiful array of novelty baskets will conclude the evening, according to Joan Mabrey and Polly Ryan, event chairs. Raffle ticket purchasers do not need to be present to win.

Tickets for show and dinner are $20 for adults, $10 for children age five to 12 and free for children under five. Show-only tickets are $10 for adults and $5 for children age five to 11, and free for children under five. Early reservations are recommended and dinners must be reserved by Weds., February 17. For ticket information and reservations, call Joan Mabrey at (619) 501-7298 or mail a self-addressed stamped envelope to Choraleers Tickets, 4027 Mississippi St., San Diego, CA 92104. Tickets for show only may also be purchased at the venue the night of the concert.

The San Diego Choraleers are sponsored by the San Diego Community College District, Mid-City Continuing Education Center, Navajo Campus.

BIA CARES DONATED NEARLY 200 BIKES TO FOURTEEN CHARITIES IN SAN DIEGO COUNTY

BIA Cares, the charitable foundation of the Building Industry Association of San Diego County, has purchased, assembled and delivered nearly 200 bicycles to 14 children’s charities during its holiday bike drive.

The children’s charities that benefited included San Diego Center for Children, StarPal Foundation, Pro-Kids Golf, San Diego Center for Community Solutions, Casa De Amparo, San Pasqual Academy, Channel 10 - Toys for Tots and United Cerebral Palsy.

Over the last 14 years, BIA Cares has donated over 500 bicycles to worthy children’s charities.

Monies were collected from individual BIA members and a host of major contributors including Newland Communities, Cox Communications, Luce Forward, Hunsaker & Associates and CBRE/Home Aid.

The BIA Cares foundation has raised more than $2.9 million for local charities in its 20 years of operation. The foundation helps to build better communities by sponsoring such projects as providing play facilities for children of substance abuse families, underwriting a literacy garden for an elementary school, building a golf facility for inner city youth and donating to organizations that assist the underprivileged throughout the County.
