the week: Monday is Martini Monday. Tuesday: features a Route 66 Margarita, Wednesday is the San Diego Breeze and Thursday is Pacific Ocean...enough to make you come back everyday. Of course we didn't have time to try them all, but Manager Mark Yunker and Chef Josh Phillips were pleased to share their menu and proud of their facility, plus they mentioned that on Thursday, from 4:30 to 6:30pm, they have Jazz Music during this Happy Hour and have added Live Entertainment for later in the evening from 8 to 11pm on Friday and Saturday. The restaurant will validate your parking ticket for 3 hours. The setting is beautiful, relaxing, elegant, and peaceful for a relaxing evening that begins at 4pm.

ALL AMERICAN GRILL in Hazard Center was our next stop just a couple of miles East on Friars Road and located at 7510 Hazard Center, #215. formerly Trophy's and now owned by Mark Oliver. All American Grill is a very comfortable bar lounge/restaurant that ONLY serves American food and beverages, thus the name, All American Grill. The menu ranges from "Home on the Range" steaks to chicken to pork chops, or "From Sea to Shining Sea", clams, shrimp, salmon to 1/2 Pound Hand Crafted burgers from New England, Wyoming or Midwestern using 100% USA Certified Angus Beef. However, check out the "Death Valley's Kiln", with Naturally, the bar is almost the full length of the room making the perfect Happy Hour setting between 4-7 Monday-Friday. Prices for Specialty drinks including the All American Margarita are $5. while beer is from $3.50 to $3.75 and wine is $2. off by the glass at the Bar or on the Trolley Terrace, plus $2.00 off grazing menu selections.

The All American Grill is conveniently located at the Hazard Center and the perfect location for parties, free parking and featuring only American-made spirits and some of America's finest brews. Would you believe 16 brews on draft and artisan alcohols to sample something new?

PLAYA GRILL & MARGARITA BAR located in Fenton Marketplace, where I found General Manager Beth Smith greeting clients as they entered at 2401 Fenton Parkway, #D104. This is another free parking facility that just welcomes patrons to "come on in". Happy Hour AKA as Tapas Hour is from 3 to 6 pm, and when we arrived, the place was buzzing with folks coming in for a Taquito, Merry Piglet, Taco or Chef's daily pick or Tapas from Spain, which is the word for appetizer or hors d'oeuvre are free when ordering a drink. They are proud of their meats which come from the Niman Ranch and their carnitas recipe originated in the State of Michoacan, Mexico. They have Already the bar was filling up quickly and still plenty of booth space for Happy Hour. Manager David mentioned that business is so good, they are planning to renovate some of their bar/lounge to accommodate more Happy Hour and dinner guests.

Our Mission Valley Happy Hour was indeed just that, truly enjoyable places to visit and enjoy as everyone is Happy to Greet you. You really feel the 'Welcome Mat' is out and the door is open.

More to come next month with additional Happy Hour locations.
